Have You Heard ...

GEA ELIKA, founder and principal broker at Elika Associates, has consummated his largest deal to date, with a $13.75 million sale at Superior Ink.

The overseas buyer was one of several from the UK and Australia Elika worked with over a busy holiday season for his firm, which closed $30 million in deals last year, it's first year in business.

“Needless to say, I am thrilled about the success of the company despite what was a very difficult economy,” said Elika.
